The Things They Carried

The title of Tim O’Brien’s collection of stories runs through my head all the hours I minister at the House of Peace and Saint Ben’s. I am ever mindful of all the things carried by the people who come our way.

There are the physical things, the things that we can see, donations for example. Ideally these things are always in motion, being carried from those who have to those who need. With these movements comes a spirit, a spirit that rests at the House of Peace. There comes a spirit of relief and gratitude from our guests who, thanks to the generosity of their sisters and brothers, now do not have to carry on without – without food or medicine or health care or, in the depths of winter, a safe and warm place to spend the day and night.

At Saint Ben’s the things being carried are often all the things a person has, borne in a heavy backpack or wheeled cart. Think about how close it is to what Jesus knew, who said when he walked among us, “Foxes have dens and birds have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head” (Luke 9: 58). No one ought to suffer as he suffered.

And I think of the unseen things being carried: an affliction not chosen, a mistake not corrected, an offense not forgiven, a charge or conviction carried on a searchable record. What a heavy burden. Capuchin Community Services, carried by volunteers, staff, donors and benefactors, seeks to intercede and lighten these loads. It is built on what our Savior taught, that when we serve in his name, we will know and share his peace. “Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11: 28). Amen.

Summer Friars Serve

Two friars will serve with CCS this summer. They are pictured below and to the right.

Greetings and Blessings to all the friends of Capuchin Community Services.

My name is Baudry Ulric Metangmo and I am a Capuchin in formation in Chicago. I am originally from Cameroon in Central Africa. I was blessed to be accepted to postulancy in 2016 after I graduated from Montana State University. Since then, I have been on the journey of living while discerning my call to a life as a Friar Minor Capuchin.

This has led me to my current studies at Catholic Theological Union where I am pursuing a Master of Divinity. I am looking forward to be involved in this ministry and to help however I can all the wonderful people who work there this June and July.

Pax et Bonum,
Br. Baudry Metangmo, OFM Cap.
Who We Are
